Polymer Clay Virtual Workshop 2021, Best Part it's FREE!

I just received an email reminding me that the 2021 Polymer Clay Workshop will broadcast from March 24th – March 30th, and the best part is that it's free.

There will be 17 international artists such as: Angie Scarr, Anita Long, Anna Rudaya, Athena Barda, Cecilia Leonini, Debbie Crothers, Eugena Topina, Evgeniya Aleksandrova, Leila Bidler, Martina Buriánová, Meg Newberg, Mihaela Georgescu, Nikolina Otrzan, Olga Chernyshova, Pavla Cepelikova, Sandy Huntress, and Tereza Cermáková.

“You will have the opportunity to watch a meeting video with each of them in which they will give you tips, tricks, and advice to help you take your creations to the next level. You will have their contact links to follow their work, social media, etc. And last but not least, you will be recharged with inspiration watching their wonderful inspirational artwork videos. I've used 1.680 gallery pics to make them.

So, do not miss any day of this virtual event. It's free. Go to fill the registration form, and then you'll receive (*) immediately an "Action Required" email to confirm your registration by clicking on the green button in the email.

(*) If you don't find it immediately after you send the filled form, look into your other trays like Junk, Spam, Promotions, Notifications, etc., and move my email to your inbox tray. Also, add my email address to your contacts to receive the emails with the event's info and do not miss anything.

Confirm it, and you'll have free access to the event. You can access it for free 24/7 during the broadcast week.

When you confirm your registration, you get redirected to the Premium Pack's Page to show you the projects you will enjoy for free and the additional ones you get as bonuses if you decide to buy your Premium Pack. Own them all with unlimited and lifetime access, so you'll learn at your own pace and get inspired with 55 Videos and 32 PDFs, in total. The full price is a fraction of its real value, but you can pay even less with 25% off. Coupon discount valid until March 23th.”

MEET THE ARTIST

Andrea Paradiso:

“I am a polymer clay artist living in Pennsylvania, USA but came with my family from Buenos Aires, Argentina in 1964 when I was seven. Buenos Aires is a very big city and the town I live in is very small. My hometown left its mark on me forever and there is a big part of me that is still a city kid. I love the hustle and bustle, the skyscrapers, the parks, the movie theaters, museums, restaurants and activities. My memories of the seven years I lived there and the culture that is mine are still very vivid for me. My many years in Pennsylvania have given me my love of nature and gardening and the peace and tranquility of a simpler style of life.”
