Help us continue to share our love of metal arts education.”

Virtual Course

The Marriage of Metal and Polymer Clay: Rivets

With Lynn Yuhr

March 7 - 9, 2023, Tuesday and Thursday from 4:00pm – 6:00pm (2 days)

Tuition: $150.00

Rivets are a way to mechanically fasten two materials together. Polymer is not sturdy enough to rivet together by itself so in this demo-focused virtual course, students will learn to be creative! Primary focus will be placed on an introductions to traditional riveting skills and modifications to make this versatile technique work for polymer clay.

Polymer Clay Jewelry: The Art Of Aging Gracefully

Do you find natural beauty in imperfect, worn-out, broken, and aging items? If so, you're in the right place! Christi Friesen will guide you through fascinating techniques for creating the look of antique, repaired, and lovingly used items using polymer clay. You'll even use vintage items, experiment with shattered and broken forms, and channel nature's own oxidation process with patinas. With Christi's help, you'll embrace the wabi-sabi mentality of finding true beauty in life's imperfection and transience.
